

Come Sail at Ware River YC

Tuesday Night Sailing Series (June 9th to July 21nd)

Let's Go Sailing -- We've planned a weekly evening series of "fun and informal" racing on the Ware River for WRYC and other local small boat sailors. New sailors can learn to sail their boats well and the experienced sailors can hone their racing skills.

INTERSTED? Please read the info below and contact Rick Klein at 804-693-5629 or e-mail rgklein45@aol.com if you have questions.

Pass this message on to anyone you know wants to come sail with us!

Event Information

Eligibility—Any sailor that wishes to sail. Non-Club members are encouraged to sail and are welcomed. Participants will be allowed to park their trailered boats on the Club property during the series. A Club boat storage agreement and Series registration must be completed prior to use of the Club grounds. Registration form is attached and required to sail.

Junior sailors are welcome and will need their parent's written permission. Juniors 14 and under will require on-site parental supervision during the series.

Parents/Spouses of sailors are welcome to bring a picnic supper and watch the great sailing going on. Gas grills are available for use. Even come sail with your Junior/Spouse – You may enjoy sailing too!

Club Boats - Use of Club boats by CLUB MEMBERS is encouraged and will signed out on a first come first served basis.

Schedule - Tuesday evenings - June 9 (Practice and get acquainted), 16, 23, 30, July 14, and July 21

Starts - First warning - 1820 (6:20 PM) - Using Sound-Signal Starting System (RRS Appendix Q). One design classes of 3 boats or more will have separate starts. Fewer than 3 class boats will have a combined start with other classes.
